

Children's Concert for Peace

Wednesday, December 19, 2007

Featuring Mizero Children of Rwanda
and Jean Paul Samputu

Wish Pearl World

246 W. 38th St., Between 7th and 8th Ave.

1-2:30 p.m.

SPONSORS: Wish Foundation for World Peace,
The Values Caucus at the UN, United Religions Initiative

Open to public.

You are invited to a performance of traditional Rwandan dance and drumming given by the youth on tour from Rwanda who are using music and dance to heal their lives after the 1994 genocide. These orphans are here to share their culture and connect you to Rwanda through the music and dance. They are accepting donations to help continue the music school and to build a home for themselves and other orphans.
